School Crossing Patrol

Today is Mr Mason's last day at the crossing patrol by St Michael's Church. There will be a temporary cover there from Monday - Wednesday next week but, after that, both posts may be unmanned if Ms Philpotts remains poorly. Cormac are in the process of appointing a replacement but in the meantime please take extra care when crossing these roads. Many thanks.

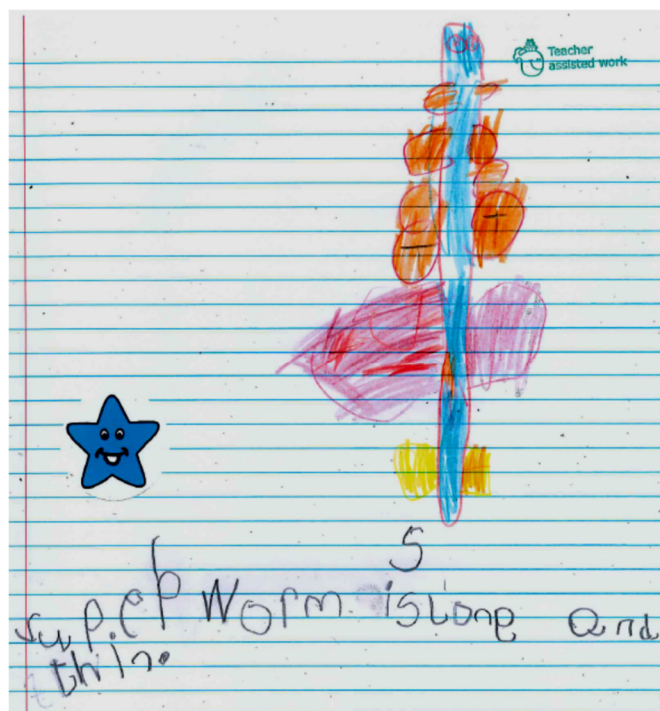

Friends of Parc Eglos

This week's recycling winners were classes 1CS and 4SC. The total collected was £26.18.

Many thanks to everyone who is supporting our recycling. We would like to encourage even more families to join in by bringing in their biscuit/chocolate/sweet wrappers, Tassimo pods, plastic air fresheners, bottle tops (but not from milk bottles), trigger heads, wet wipe packaging, baby food pouches, pens and ink jet cartridges.

Celebration of Work

This week the Dolphins class have been focusing on a topic of mud. Zachary has thoroughly enjoyed this and he has produced this amazing sentence to make his 'Superworm' sound exciting. Great work Zachary!
