Boys Writing Group

This week, Harry and Michael from Y6 gave their thoughts and ideas on how they are enjoying the WOW writing project that they are involved in each Friday. They very enthusiastically explained how they are enjoying writing more after taking part in this project.

Harry said that the project is really helping him with his writing skills. The speed of his writing has improved and he knows to use better adjectives.

Michael said the project has been lots of fun. It's not just writing the whole time, there have been fun activities that help with writing and improving vocabulary. He likes using the kindles to help find spellings instead of using a dictionary or thesaurus. The trip to Tehidy Woods helped him learn to write more. He said it was because he started looking around and observing the woods in detail. His writing is neater too!

They have both enjoyed the games that help to improve their knowledge and skills. "Being outside helps us," they both said.

At the start neither of the boys liked writing and they didn't want to be part of the club. After the first time Harry said to his mum, "I am not stopping this thing!" Mrs Dye has worked very hard - thank you. Both boys would recommend it for others to enjoy.
